Adding the 25-acre Hanley Property would protect the view of the marsh and provide nesting and feeding habitat for birds at the marsh.

As the high point on the northwest side of the Marsh, the Hanley Property provides a great opportunity for a trail and overlook.